Who

Event is open to Special Olympics Athletes and to individuals with intellectual disabilities who are not involved with Special Olympics, friends and caregivers, all are welcome! Make it a group event and arrive on transit or carpool together!

Please contact us to register with the number in your party and t-shirt size.*

To register contact: Christopher Edwards, 604.737.3081, cedwards@specialolympics.bc.ca

What

Professionals from the fields of podiatry, dentistry, and optometry have received special training from Special Olympics International and have volunteered to offer FREE Health Screenings to individuals with intellectual disabilities. Among other services, individuals will receive Hearing Screenings, Bone Density Scans provided by London Drugs and those in need will receive FREE eyeglasses and mouth guards.

Why

These trained professionals use their training and tools specifically designed to catch some health issues that would otherwise go unnoticed. Many athletes and caregivers are surprised to find health issues that have gone undiagnosed through regular health channels.

Other fun games and activities for ALL ages will take place as well! All attendees will be entered into prize giveaways!

Families and Friends

There will also be information sessions, led by Dr. Art Hister, directed at educating caregivers about health issues, Dr. Laura Farres, Team BC Sport Psychologist will address how friends and families can best encourage their athletes and more! Families and Friends who register will receive a free supporter t-shirt!

Make sure you take advantage of this excellent opportunity!
