Art of Engaging Community Information	Rachel Schmidt did talk about her background in Art. The workshop is three hours in length. Cathy Bonnett suggested that she might go as a rep from the Upper Fraser Community Council to a workshop elsewhere. Question arose: Are there any other ways of training for how to engage community?

Forum on Ageing Feedback	Was well done. Abbotsford afternoon Forum had an attendance of 29 people (including one person from Health). Abbotsford evening Forum had an attendance of 10 people. Langley Forum had an attendance of 22 people (mainly service providers and self-advocates). Attendance: 51% self advocate parents, 25% service providers. There were three specific questions so the Forum was not entirely open ended. Jule Hopkins kept the Forum nicely focused. Jule to continue visiting community councils and will present on new strategies in the future. Good points were brought up at each Forum. It was a start. A lot of confusion surfaced around wills. Not a lot of Lawyers around who know about discretionary trust funds.

	Kerry will forward Jule's thank-you e-mail.	Kerry Lawson	May 19, 2011

Hope Transition night to be held on May 5 and a date for Agassiz remains to be decided.
