

City of Colwood

Proclamation

COMMUNITY LIVING MONTH

WHEREAS Community Living Month celebrates the achievements of people with developmental disabilities, including independent living, workplace accomplishments and community and social participation; and

WHEREAS Community Living Month recognizes the hard work of individuals, families and community members to create inclusive communities and opportunities for all British Columbians with developmental disabilities; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government has proclaimed October as Community Living Month since 2002; and

WHEREAS Many People with developmental disabilities live and work in the City of Colwood, and communities help increase inclusion and break down attitudinal barriers; and

WHEREAS Community Living BC, a provincial Crown agency, will be celebrating Community Living Month in partnership with the City of Colwood throughout October to raise public awareness of the issues facing people with developmental disabilities.

NOW THEREFORE:

I, Carol Hamilton, Mayor of the City of Colwood, do hereby proclaim the month of October 2015, as Community Living Month in the City of Colwood.

Mayor Carol Hamilton

Colwood