

Has someone helped you get through the COVID-19 pandemic?

Nominate them for a WOW Award!

Each year CLBC recognizes British Columbians who are making a difference in the lives of people with diverse abilities.

Is there someone in your life who made sure you continued to have a good quality of life throughout this past year? Or do you know someone who has helped people CLBC serves to stay hopeful and supported them along the way?

You can shine a spotlight on their efforts by nominating them for a CLBC Widening Our World (WOW) Award!

They could be a friend, family member, home sharing provider, support worker, employer or anyone else in your life.

We know people are doing great things and we want to hear all about them!

All you need to do is answer the questions in this form. The final day to submit nominations is:

September 9, 2021
at 5:00p.m.

Winners will be announced in October during Community Inclusion Month.

WOW 2021 Award Rules

All nominations must be completed on the official nomination form.

Telephone and email contact information for both nominator and nominee are required.

Winners' and their nominees' names will be published on the CLBC website, social media pages, and in the CLBC Connect and Celebrate Diverse ABILITIES magazines.

How to submit your nomination

You can submit the form in either of these two ways:

Online

Visit www.CommunityLivingBC.ca/WOW to find and complete the online nomination form.

WOW Awards 2021 Nomination Form

If you need help with this form, ask someone you trust, like a friend, family member, service provider or co-worker.

When you fill out this form, please tell us as much as you can about how the person you nominate has helped you or others to get through the past year and a half of the COVID-19 pandemic. Your answers will be used by the evaluation committee to choose this year's Award winners.

Please provide details and examples in your responses. If you need more space, please feel free to write as much as you like in a separate document (e.g. Word) and send it in with your completed form.
