Community Inclusion Month

October 2022

WHEREAS every October, British Columbians across the province recognize and celebrate the contributions and potential of people with developmental disabilities during Community Inclusion Month;

AND WHEREAS Canada ratified the United Nations' historic Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities in 2010;

AND WHEREAS the inclusion of individuals with developmental disabilities in all aspects of community enables all people to contribute their gifts, talents, and abilities, and to secure their rightful place at home, at school, at work, and in the community;

AND WHEREAS a thriving community requires the inclusion and participation of all its members;

AND WHEREAS the participation of persons with diverse abilities as valued members of the work force benefits community as a whole and reflects the provisions of the Convention;

AND WHEREAS Community Living BC, a provincial Crown corporation, will be celebrating Community Inclusion Month to raise public awareness about inclusion and support people with diverse abilities to participate fully in their communities.

NOW THEREFORE I, Jack Crompton, Mayor of the Resort Municipality of Whistler, do hereby proclaim October as Community Inclusion Month.

Jack Crompton, Mayor
Resort Municipality of Whistler
